We look forward to seeing you throughout this exciting month of community and personal preparation.

Warmest wishes from the program team.

Meet our Sangha

Chenrezig Institute is home to our resident teacher Geshe Phuntsok Tsultrim and a community of ordained monks and nuns: the sangha. These spiritual friends have made the lifelong commitment hold the vows given by the Buddha. They generously help us all to understand the Buddha's profound teachings.

You can make an appointment with one of our sangha through reception.

Geshe Phuntsok Tsultrim (left) was specially chosen as our resident teacher by our Spiritual Director Lama Zopa Rinpoche.

Gubbi Gubbi

The Gubbi Gubbi people are the traditional custodians of this land. We pay our respects to the Elders of the past, present and future. They hold the memories, the traditions, the culture and hopes for Aboriginal Australia. We remember that this land is, was and always will be traditional Aboriginal land.

Thank you for your support

Chenrezig Institute exists due to the kindness and generosity of our community. The Dharma itself is priceless, but running a Dharma centre involves many expenses, even with mostly volunteers.

Facility Fees allow us to make offerings to our teachers and staff, pay the bills and maintain our infrastructure. But they should not be a barrier for anyone. Please contact spc@chenrezig.com.au if you need to make arrangements to attend our courses.

The Wheel of Sharp Weapons

Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche June 2nd 2018

Chenrezig Institute invites everyone to hear teachings from renowned spiritual master Lama Zopa Rinpoche on this essential teaching on the nature of karma.

'Wheel of Sharp Weapons' written by Dhamaraksita is a detailed source for how the laws of karma play out in our lives. It reveals the interactions of cause and effect.

A poetic presentation, the "wheel of sharp weapons" is visualized something like a boomerang. The negative karma we propel outward into the world returns to us with cutting affect. Our suffering experience, Dharmaaksita explains is not a punishment, merely a karmic result we created ourselves.

Armed with this knowledge of karma and result we can change our thoughts and actions so that what returns to us in the future is genuine and lasting happiness and fulfilment.

Be inspired by this powerful and dynamic teaching in English by holy being Lama Zopa Rinpoche.

Ksitigarbha Initiation

June 3rd 2018

When environmental destruction, natural disasters and the devastation of war and disharmony pervade, Bodhisattva Ksitigarbha shines the light of hope.

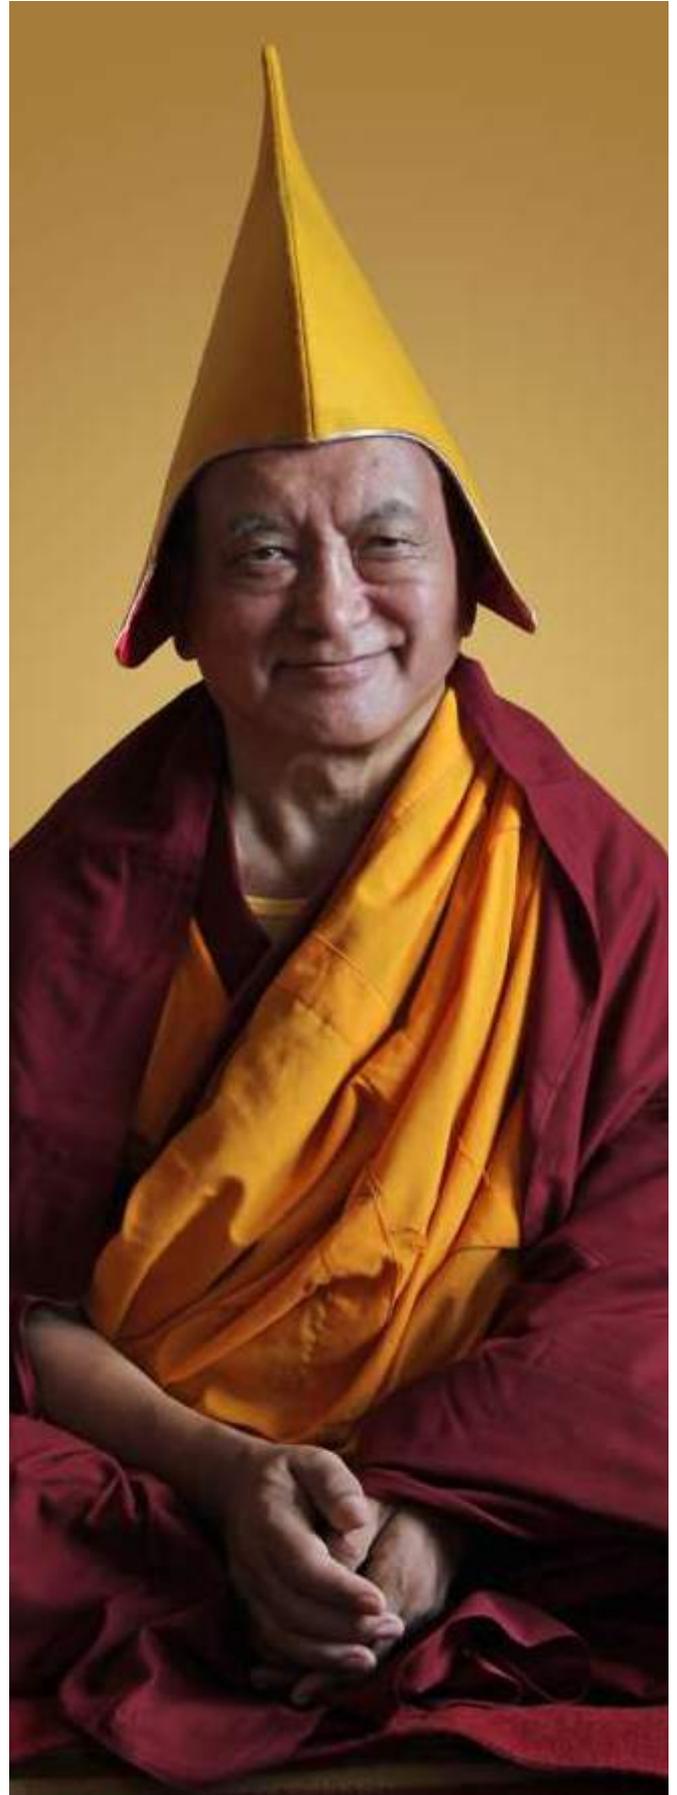

Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche will offer this profound initiation for students wishing to engage with this powerful practice.

“This practice is especially beneficial for those who have heavy problems, serious health problems, big projects, or financial difficulties. I suggest it is extremely powerful to recite every day for protection.” Lama Zopa

As an archetypal Great Being, Ksitigarbha personifies the renunciation, courage and perseverance of the mind that has awakened.

In the dynamic process of personal cultivation, Ksitigarbha represents the complimentary functions of equanimity and steadfastness. With boundless nurturing and healing powers, Ksitigarbha personifies the earth itself.

Support Rinpoches Teachings

Support the Sangha Jewel

Money raised will be used to sponsor meals, accommodation, texts and other items so that all sangha can have access to their teacher and these precious teachings.

When we support the flourishing of sangha, we support the flourishing of the Dharma for all sentient beings.

Become like a flower in the world!

Offer flowers to Rinpoche and all the holy objects with over 1000 flower offerings.

Support the Dharma Jewel

Support all our students in their ongoing practice by sponsoring the prayer books, practice manuals and photos of Rinpoche that each student will take home. Give the gift of Dharma knowing that each student will have the vital support they need.

Chai Offerings

Throughout Rinpoches visit there will be ritual tea offerings to all sangha and students. Rinpoche advises us to visualise offering the tea as offering the Buddhas of all ten directions immeasurable oceans of delicious nectar.

Sow the Seeds of Tantric Teachings for the Future

Contribute to the ritual ingredients and Initiation offerings for the Ksitigarbha Empowerment ensuring conditions are right for the Tantric Teachings.

This year as an offering to Rinpoche we are creating beautiful Long Life Tsa Tsa's – three dimensional sacred images of the three long life deities, Amitayus, White Tara and Namgyalma. Students are invited to sponsor and get involved in making these beautiful offerings for Rinpoche.

Meditation and Retreat

Calm Abiding Practice Day with Ven. Tsonдру

An unruly mind is not only the cause of our own difficulties and suffering but also an obstacle to developing kindness and compassion for others. Unwanted distractions undermine our attempts to develop the wisdom and compassion necessary to achieve our potential and benefit those around us. Shamatha practice pacifies those distractions leaving the mind calm, clear and flexible.

Ven. Tsonдру takes time from her own personal Calm Abiding Retreat to share this beautiful and peaceful practice with us. Calm Abiding is the ideal practice for a busy life creating a strong and stable base of calm and relaxation we can return to whenever we are feeling stressed or overwhelmed. When we are feeling stronger it gives us the undistracted focus to be of greater benefit to ourselves and others.

Ven. Tsonдру will support your developing practice gently leading you through a range of meditations and explaining how these support the Buddhist path.

Please wear loose comfortable clothing for sitting and a yoga mat if you would like to meditate in a laying down position.

Saturday 5th May 9:00am to 3:30pm, held in the Gompa at Chenrezig Institute.

Facility fee $25. Accommodation and meals available separately.

Ven. Tsonдру is a Buddhist nun and a student of Chenrezig Institute's Buddhist Study Program. She teaches beginner meditation courses and leads shamatha practice days at Chenrezig Institute. She is currently completing her own retreat.

Buddhist Teachings

Are you my Guru? with Ven. Kartsön

According to the Vajrayana tradition, relying on a spiritual teacher is of utmost importance when progressing along the path leading to emancipation and enlightenment. But we have all heard of cults and charismatic leaders who abused the trust placed in them. So how do we set about finding a qualified spiritual teacher? How do we establish a relationship with them? And how can it serve our own development, by training and following the example they lead?

There are teachers who teach you how to become disciplined, they are those who teach you the Mahayana and those who teach you Tantra. How we relate to each of them will differ and continue to change. With so many things to consider, we often misunderstand how we can grow through this relationship and use it as fuel to our spiritual practice.

Join us at Chenrezig Institute to learn how to have a practical and healthy approach to establishing a connection with a teacher. How to choose one and what that will mean for your practice.

This is an excellent course for all students considering taking teachings and particularly an empowerment with Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche or any other teacher.

Saturday 19th May 9:00am - Sunday 20th May 4:30pm, held in the Gompa at Chenrezig Institute.

Facility fee $108.

10% discount for members and concession card holders. Accommodation and meals available separately.

Originally from Israel, Ven. Kartsön has worked closely with our Tibetan Teachers, studying and translating for ten years of our advanced study program, masters program, and is now tutoring this program. A knowledgeable teacher in his own right, he travels extensively teaching and translating for Lamas in India, Israel, Singapore, Taiwan and China.

Karma: How we Create our own Reality with Ven. Robina Courtin

We spend our lives being seduced by the outside world, believing utterly that happiness and suffering come from “out there”. Even more fundamentally, we assume that we are the handiwork of someone else; that we are innocent victims who didn’t ask to get born and that there is no logic for why things happen. The experiential implications of this are fear, blame, anger, and guilt, bringing ever-deepening levels of suffering and hopelessness.

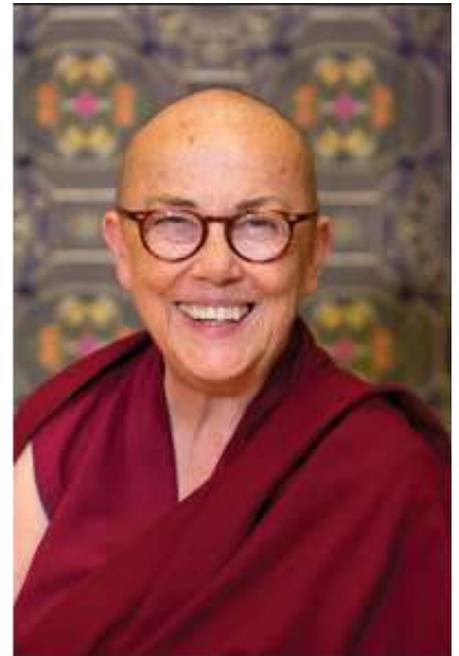

The Buddhas view of reality is that we come into this life at the first moment of conception in our mother’s womb fully programmed with our own tendencies and the seeds of our experiences in this life. As the Dalai Lama says, the view of karma is one of “self-creation.” We are, literally, the creators of our lives, our happiness, and our suffering. We are the boss.

With this view we realize that everything we experience is our own "karmic appearance", as Lama Zopa Rinpoche puts it. Everything is made by our own minds, in the past and in the present. And because of this there is no karma that we can’t change.

The experiential implication of this view is empowerment, accountability, and the courage to change and, combining it with an understanding of the Buddha’s model of the mind, we gradually loosen the grip of ego-grasping and the other neuroses, thus developing our marvelous potential for clarity, self-confidence, empathy and the other qualities that Buddha says are at the core of our being.

Friday 29th June 6:30pm - Sunday 1st July 3:45pm, held in the Gompa at Chenrezig Institute. Facility fee $108.

10% discount for members and concession card holders. Accommodation and meals available separately.

Ordained since the late 1970s, Ven. Robina has worked full time since then for Lama Thubten Yeshe and Lama Zopa Rinpoche’s FPMT. Over the years she has served as editorial director of Wisdom Publications, editor of Mandala magazine, executive director of Liberation Prison Project and as an inspirational touring teacher. Her life and work with prisoners have been featured in the documentary films “Chasing Buddha” and “Key to Freedom”.

Upcoming Special Event

Nyung Na Retreat with Ven. Ailsa Cameron

Join us to bring to light positive states of mind and discover for yourself the nature of serious retreat during this special annual event.

A Nyung Na retreat is a two-day meditation, fasting and purification practice based on the sadhana of Thousand-Armed Chenrezig, the Buddha of Compassion. It is an extremely powerful way to heal illnesses, purify negative karma and open the heart to compassion. It is an effective spiritual, mental and physical detox. Each two-day Nyung Na involves taking the eight Mahayana precepts, maintaining silence and doing prayer recitations and prostrations. The second day includes fasting for 24 hours (taking no food or water).

This year we are offering three of these inspiring two-day retreats. Even doing just one Nyung Na is an extremely powerful method of cleansing negativity and accumulating merit. No specific empowerments are needed. 2018 Nyung Na schedule as follows:

Introduction: 10 July 6:30pm

Nyung Na 1: 11 July 5:00am – 12 July 7:00am

Nyung Na 2: 13 July 5:00am – 14 July 7:00am

Nyung Na 3: 15 July 5:00am – 16 July 7:00am

Big Breakfast for all retreatants on 17 July at 8:00am

Facility fee for each Nyung Na is $108 *

Facility Fee for the set of three Nyung Nas is $324*

*Nyung Nas are a mentally and physically demanding practice. So that we can care for our retreatants, we include the meals and accommodation within the cost of the retreat. Please do not book these separately. When you book we will contact you to arrange accommodation. As the start time of the retreat is 5:00 am we strongly suggest guests stay on the property the evening before.

As it is a rare and precious opportunity to be able to complete Nyung Na retreats, preference will be given to those retreatants who book for the entire seven day retreat. Discovering Buddhism students are particularly invited to this retreat to complete the Nyung Na as one of their special integration experiences.

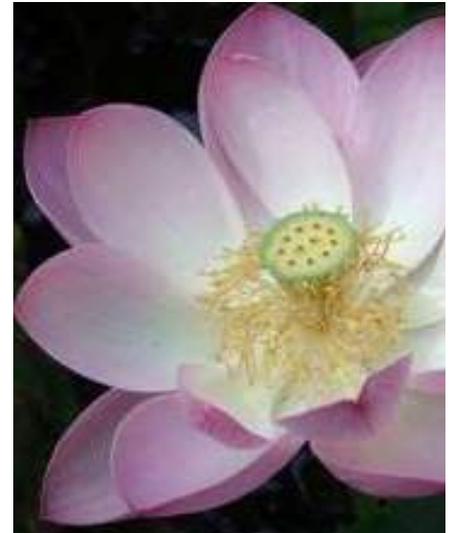

Ordained in 1987, Ven. Ailsa is a close student of Lama Zopa Rinpoche and has been editing his teachings since 1984 for the Lama Yeshe Wisdom Archive. Ven. Ailsa has led the annual Nyung Na retreats at Chenrezig Institute for more than twenty years.

Tools for Happiness Two:

How We Relate and Find Meaning with Ven. Lozang Tsultrim

The qualities of respect, forgiveness, gratitude, and loyalty are powerful tools to strengthen our relationships. Since our own happiness ultimately depends on the happiness of those around us, developing these qualities is one of the most direct and effective routes to a happy life. Our search for meaning depends on an ability and willingness to explore new and unfamiliar territory. It is a challenge to venture deep into oneself and find out how to create a happy and fulfilling life: to have the courage for principles and aspirations.

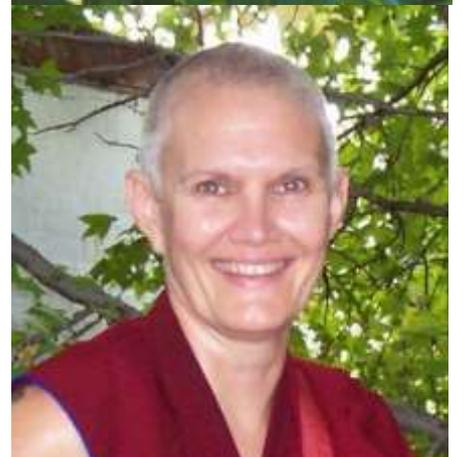

This workshop provides straightforward tools for developing happiness and meaning in everyday life by focusing on how we relate to others. We learn the deeper value of kindness, honesty, generosity and right speech. It is suitable for people of all ages, faiths, and cultural backgrounds - using everyday language for people from any or no spiritual tradition.

This is a paired workshop with Tools for Happiness: How We Think and Act in April. You don't have to attend both workshops, but doing the two will give you all the tools you need to radically change your life!

held at in the Gompa at Chenrezig Institute.

Facility fee $120.
