Wel come

This month Lama Zopa Rinpoche will give teachings and an initiation at Chenrezig Institute and we are very thrilled to welcome him and all of you.

Find out more about his visit and all other courses in this program and on our website. This month we start a new cycle of our annual Discovering Buddhism Program. One week later, Ven. Karstön will help us to find out more about how we can use difficult times on our path in his course, plus our resident teacher Geshe Tsultrim guides us through the teachings on the Eight Verses of Thought Transformation and shows us their benefit to our everyday life. And if all those teachings in one month are not already mind blowing, Ven. Robina Courtin will give a teaching on Karma and how we create our day to day reality. We are happy to welcome you at Chenrezig Institute.

Meet our Sangha

Chenrezig Institute is home to our resident teacher Geshe Phuntsok Tsultrim and a community of ordained monks and nuns: the sangha. These spiritual friends have made the lifelong commitment to hold the vows given by the Buddha. They generously help us all to understand the Buddha's profound teachings.

You can make an appointment with one of our sangha through reception.

Geshe Phuntsok Tsultrim (left) was specially chosen as our resident teacher by our Spiritual Director Lama Zopa Rinpoche

Gubbi Gubbi

The Gubbi Gubbi people are the traditional custodians of this land. We pay our respects to the Elders of the past, present and future. They hold the memories, the traditions, the culture and hopes for Aboriginal Australia. We remember that this land is, was and always will be traditional Aboriginal land.

Thank you for your support

Chenrezig Institute exists due to the kindness and generosity of our community. The Dharma itself is priceless, but running a Dharma centre involves many expenses, even with mostly volunteers.

Facility Fees allow us to make offerings to our teachers and staff, pay the bills and maintain our infrastructure. But they should not be a barrier for anyone. Please contact spc@chenrezig.com.au if you need to make arrangements to attend our courses.

Change your Mind to Change your Life

Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche

Friday June 1st 2018, from 7:00pm

Lama Zopa Rinpoche live in the gompa for an evening talk:

Change your Mind to Change your Life:
Lojong teachings

Chenrezig Institute invites everyone to hear teachings from renowned spiritual master Lama Zopa Rinpoche on how you can change your life by changing your mind.

Sometimes we can feel trapped and overwhelmed by the weight of our responsibilities and the roles we play in each others lives. At other times we drift unsure how to make our lives feel meaningful and connected. Both of these extremes create stress and fatigue that see us repeating unhelpful patterns but hoping this time things will work out.

Deeper than “looking on the bright side” and more powerful than positive thinking, Lama Zopa Rinpoche invites students to consider the true capacity each of us has for compassion, wisdom and change. Based on the ancient Buddhist technique of mind training or thought transformation, these Lojong teachings will invite us to stop waiting for the perfect time, perfect partner and perfect life and instead transform what we already have.

Join us for these accessible teachings on changing adversity into a path of compassion and growth. Be inspired by this powerful and dynamic teaching in English by holy being Lama Zopa Rinpoche.

Most Secret Hayagriva Initiation

Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche

Saturday 2 June - Monday 4 June

Most Secret Hayagriva Initiation

Great Protector, Lama Zopa Rinpoche offers the Most Secret Hayagriva Initiation opening the door of the lineage to eliminate obstacles and suffering.

Most Secret Hayagriva Practice is drawn from the lineage of both Buddha Amitabha and Guru Padmasambhava. Lama Tsongkhapa gave his blessing for Hayagriva to be adopted as the principal protector of Sera Je Monastery and to this day these practices continue there in an unbroken lineage. This deity is also very special for Lama Yeshe and Lama Zopa Rinpoche, and has a powerful role within FPMT. Rinpoche strongly encourages those students connected to the organisation, particularly those who have responsibilities, to take this initiation.

This empowerment is especially beneficial as an antidote to obstacles and is a powerful protection from serious illness. This is a rare opportunity to receive a tantric empowerment from an outstanding spiritual master, Lama Zopa Rinpoche.

Your commitments for this Initiation are Refuge, Bodhisattva and Tantric Vows including six-session guru yoga daily and a mala of the deity mantra, daily for the rest of your life. Students will enter into a student-teacher relationship with Lama Zopa Rinpoche.

Please note that you cannot take this initiation if you are a Shugden practitioner.

Offer flowers to Rinpoche and all the holy objects with over 1000 flower offerings.

Sew Seeds of Tantric Teachings for the Future

Contribute to the ritual ingredients and Initiation offerings for the Ksitigarbha Empowerment ensuring conditions are right for the Tantric Teachings.

This year as an offering to Rinpoche we are creating beautiful Long Life Tsa Tsa's – three dimensional sacred images of the three long life deities, Amitayus, White Tara and Namgyalma. Students are invited to sponsor and get involved in making these beautiful offerings for Rinpoche.

Karma: How we Create our own Reality with Ven. Robina Courtin

We spend our lives being seduced by the outside world, believing utterly that happiness and suffering come from “out there”. Even more fundamentally, we assume that we are the handiwork of someone else; that we’re innocent victims who didn’t ask to get born and that there’s no logic for why things happen. The experiential implications of this are fear, blame, anger and guilt, bringing ever-deepening levels of suffering and hopelessness.

Buddha’s view of reality is that we come into this life at the first moment of conception in our mother’s womb fully programmed with our own tendencies and the seeds of our experiences in this life. As the Dalai Lama says, the view of karma is one of “self-creation.” We are, literally, the creators of our lives, our happiness, and our suffering. We are the boss.

With this view we realize that everything we experience is our own "karmic appearance", as Lama Zopa Rinpoche puts it. Everything is made by our own minds, in the past and in the present. And because of this there is no karma that we can’t change.

The experiential implication of this view is empowerment, accountability and the courage to change. Combining this with an understanding of the Buddha’s model of the mind, we gradually loosen the grip of ego-grasping and the other neuroses, thus developing our marvelous potential for clarity, self-confidence, empathy and the other qualities that Buddha says are at the core of our being.

Friday 29th June 6:30pm - Sunday 1st July 3:45pm, held in the Gompa at Chenrezig Institute.

Facility fee $108.

10% discount for members and concession card holders.

Accommodation and meals available separately.

Ordained since the late 1970s, Ven. Robina has worked full time since then for Lama Thubten Yeshe and Lama Zopa Rinpoche’s FPMT. Over the years she has served as editorial director of Wisdom Publications, editor of Mandala magazine, executive director of Liberation Prison Project and as an inspirational touring teacher. Her life and work with prisoners have been featured in the documentary films ‘Chasing Buddha’ and ‘Key to Freedom’.

Meditation

Mindfulness in Motion with Ven. Lozang Tsultrim

“Our very perception of reality is tied closely to where we focus our attention. Only what we pay attention to seems real to us, whereas whatever we ignore - no matter how important it may be - seems to fade into insignificance.” Alan Wallace

The practice of mindfulness is both straightforward, practical and one of the key techniques to happiness. But that doesn't mean you have to put life on hold and commit to hours of meditation to experience its benefits.

In this one-day course we explore different kinds of mindfulness and discover how to turn every day activities into mindfulness practices. Ven. Tsultrim will help you identify key activities and moments in your day that you can transform into your own personal mindfulness practice. You'll be able to practice at home, at work and with friends and family appreciating each of your experiences with greater awareness and attention.

This course is appropriate for anyone wanting to find out more about Mindfulness and how it can help. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Sunday 10th June 9:00am - 4:30pm,
held in the Wellbeing Centre at Chenrezig Institute.

Facility fee $55.

10% discount for members and concession card holders.
Accommodation and meals available separately.

Ven. Tsultrim has been a student of Chenrezig Institute for many years. She is a counsellor with a Master of International Studies in Peace and Conflict Resolution. Ven. Tsultrim uses mindfulness techniques and other Buddhist principles to help people make changes to develop peace and contentment in their hearts.

Buddhist Teachings

Geshe Phuntsok Tsultrim is immensely popular for the warm and approachable way in which he presents the dharma and inspires our community. He became a monk at Sera Je Monastery in India, where he was awarded with his Geshe degree (the equivalent of a doctorate in Buddhist studies) in 2005. He began teaching at Chenrezig Institute in 2014 after being chosen for our community by Lama Zopa Rinpoche. He teaches in Tibetan with the help of his professional translator, Ven. Kartsön.

The Eight Verses of Thought Transformation with Geshe Tsultrim and Ven. Chokyì

"No anger inside means no enemy inside."

Lama Zopa Rinpoche

Time and time again we are overwhelmed by suffering but in the dense fog of our confusion, anger and emotional afflictions, we can't see a solution or find our way out to happiness. We are living as though we are blind. How can we stop this continuous cycle of mental torment and turn things around? Is it really possible to warmly invite happiness into our lives? Join us to investigate an ancient Buddhist technique to help still the internal storms that stop us from reaching our full potential for peace and happiness.

The Eight Verses of Thought Transformation are short, confronting and profound; they deeply challenge our preconceptions of how happiness can be achieved in our lives. Inspiring, poetic and immensely powerful, the verses ask us to view the undesirable things in life through a radical new lens. By training our mind in this way, a state of peace becomes achievable. Undesired suffering turns into happiness and takes us further along the path to enlightenment.

The potency of this ancient thought training method can't be underestimated. Passed down through an unbroken Buddhist lineage, the text remains as relevant today as it was when first written in the eleventh century by Kadampa Geshe Langri Tangpa.

Saturday 23th June 9:00am - Sunday 24th June 3:45pm, held in the Gompa at Chenrezig Institute.

Facility fee $108.

10% discount for members and concession card holders. Accommodation and meals available separately.

When it all Goes Wrong: Heart Advice for Times of Trouble with Ven. Kartsön

Bad things can happen to good people, so the saying goes.

So how do we make sense of things that seem to make no sense at all. From personal tragedies to global disasters, watching the nightly news we can begin to feel both overwhelmed and vulnerable. Frustrated and angry at the injustice and saddened by our inability to meaningfully address the issues.

But what if there was a way to approach this suffering that allowed us to transform it into something powerful and positive for ourselves and others?

Indian master Shantideva's classic and revered text "A guide to the Bodhisattva's Way of Life" considers how we might be able to use suffering as part of our practice. He encourages us to see times of trouble as opportunities to use the deep feelings generated to create powerful and profound responses. This transformative approach encourages us not to turn away from problems but to stand in the eye of the storm with a calm and collected response.

Join knowledgeable and engaging teacher Ven. Karstön as he dives into the challenges of the modern world and takes a fearless look at the things that cause us suffering and what we can do about them. Suitable for all students.

Saturday 16th June 9:00am - Sunday 17th June 3:45pm, held in the Gompa at Chenrezig Institute.

Facility fee $108.

10% discount for members and concession card holders.

Originally from Israel, Ven. Kartsön has worked closely with our Tibetan Teachers, studying and translating for ten years of our advanced study program, masters program, and is now tutoring this program. A knowledgeable teacher in his own right, he travels extensively teaching and translating for Lamas in India, Israel, Singapore, Taiwan and China.

Intermediate Program Module One, 2018

Discovering Buddhism: The Mind and it's Potential with Ven. Thubten Chokyi

"All things are preceded by the mind, led by the mind, created by the mind." The Dhammapada

Why is it that no matter how much we achieve in life we still encounter problems? Why does that elusive goal of long-lasting happiness continue to evade us?

From a Buddhist perspective, mind is the basis of our experience – the creator of our happiness and the creator of our problems lies within us. Realizing that we're truly in control is revolutionary. But how do we change our minds for the better? How do we cultivate new thinking habits? How do we stop listening to negative self-talk?

In this teaching weekend of the first module of the Discovering Buddhism program, we examine what mind is; its nature and function, and how the mind perceives and interprets the world around us. Ven. Chokyi will show us methods to transform destructive thoughts and attitudes and to create a positive, joyous mind. All welcome! Bookings essential.

This is the first part of Module one of the Discovering Buddhism program. The second part is a practice weekend on the same topic one month later, in July.

Saturday 9th June 9:00am - Sunday 10th June 3:45pm, held in the Gompa at Chenrezig Institute. (Part 1)

Saturday 7th July 9:00am - Sunday 8th July 3:45pm, held in the Gompa at Chenrezig Institute (Part 2)

Facility fee $108 (for each Part individually).
10% discount for members and concession card holders.

Advanced Program Module One, 2018

The Heart of Wisdom Sutra

“Form is empty, emptiness is form; form is not other than emptiness, emptiness is not other than form ...”

The famous Heart Sutra reveals the truth of emptiness through a short exchange between two of the Buddha’s most illustrious disciples, Avalokiteshvara and Shariputra. Traditional commentary expands on the cryptic style of the sutra to clarify the nature of the wisdom realizing emptiness and the ‘method’ practices which are its essential complements.

Geshe Tsultrim will lead us to a clearer understanding of emptiness according to the Middle Way Consequence School and show us how this short text includes all the paths for all levels of beings.

This profound subject will be offered as a full two-week intensive retreat-style module, with teachings, tutorials and meditations five days per week (Mon-Fri) with a break over the intervening weekend for assimilation or other activities.

Monday 23rd July - Friday 3rd August

Facility Fee: $160.

10% discount for students attending the full retreat.

Accommodation and meals available separately.

The Advanced Study Program offered at Chenrezig Institute is a five year comprehensive, practice-oriented course of Buddhist Study for students wishing to extend their understanding of Buddhist thought and to receive a qualification enabling them to teach in FPMT centers.

Teachings are with our resident teacher, Geshe Phuntsok Tsultrim, personally chosen for Chenrezig Institute by Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche. Geshela is assisted by experienced interpreter and Advanced Study Program graduate, Ven. Kartsön (aka Yaki Platt).

Upcoming Special Event

Nyung Na Retreat with Ven. Ailsa Cameron

Join us to bring to light positive states of mind and discover for yourself the nature of serious retreat during this special annual event.

A Nyung Na retreat is a two-day meditation, fasting and purification practice based on the sadhana of Thousand-Armed Chenrezig, the Buddha of Compassion. It is an extremely powerful way to heal illnesses, purify negative karma and open the heart to compassion. It is an effective spiritual, mental and physical detox. Each two-day Nyung Na involves taking the eight Mahayana precepts, maintaining silence and doing prayer recitations and prostrations. The second day includes fasting for 24 hours (taking no food or water).

This year we are offering three of these inspiring two-day retreats. Even doing just one Nyung Na is an extremely powerful method of cleansing negativity and accumulating merit. No specific empowerments are needed.

2018 Nyung Na schedule as follows:

Introduction: 10 July at 6:30pm

Nyung Na 1: 11 July 5:00am - 12 July 7:00am

Nyung Na 2: 13 July 5:00am - 14 July 7:00am

Nyung Na 3: 15 July 5:00am - 16 July 7:00am

Big Breakfast for all retreatants on 17 July at 8:00am

Facility fee for each Nyung Na is $108 *

Facility Fee for the set of three Nyung Nas is $324*

*Nyung Nas are a mentally and physically demanding practice. So that we can care for our retreatants, we include the meals and accommodation within the cost of the retreat. Please do not book these separately. When you book we will contact you to arrange accommodation. As the start time of the retreat is 5:00 am we strongly suggest guests stay on the property the evening before.

As it is a rare and precious opportunity to be able to complete Nyung Na retreats, preference will be given to those retreatants who book for the entire seven day retreat. Discovering Buddhism students are particularly invited to this retreat to complete the Nyung Na as one of their special integration experiences.

Ordained in 1987, Ven. Ailsa is a close student of Lama Zopa Rinpoche and has been editing his teachings since 1984 for the Lama Yeshe Wisdom Archive. Ven. Ailsa has led the annual Nyung Na retreats at Chenrezig Institute for more than twenty years.

Kartsön (Yaki Platt) and Ekno's Sharon Thrupp. Starting in Brisbane we will travel to Osaka (you may choose to make your own way to Osaka), followed by a visit to Nara (the first permanent capital of Japan). It is full of historic treasures, including some of Japan's oldest and largest temples.

Next is Mt. Koya which is home to an active monastic center founded twelve centuries ago and has its headquarters of Shingon Buddhism. Situated on a small plain at the top of Mt. Koya the Monastery is a complex of temples, halls, and pagodas. Surrounded by a thick forest of massive cedars, it is a place for reflection and contemplation. There is also a womens' pilgrimage circuit which you may wish to complete during your stay.

On we travel to historical Kyoto, full of shrines and temples, followed by walking the ancient pilgrimage trail of Kumano Kodo at the most stunning time of year with autumn leaves in full colour. Our walk is very flexible with shortcut options. Without the shortcuts we will walk 54km over four days, but with two guides with the group which ever option you choose you will not be alone. The walk can be strenuous at times, but you will have the luxury of only carrying a day-pack each day.
